GRADE REPORTS

All students who attended summer school last summer should have received an official grade report from the University. If there are any errors on the report either in subjects, grades, total hours or cumulative GPA, please obtain a grade complaint form from the office and write out the complaint completely.

Legal Aid Clinic students during the summer session, 1974, erroneously received 6 hours of credit instead of 3. Transcripts are being corrected automatically.

PAYMENT DATES

The third installment payment of tuition is due on October 24 and the fourth installment payment is due November 22, 1974.

DROPPING COURSES

The last day to drop a course without special permission is Friday, November 1, 1974. After that date a course may be dropped only for emergencies with the permission of the Assistant Dean, Mr. Chapman. Freshmen are not permitted to drop a required course.

PLACEMENT

Summer jobs for junior students: juniors seeking summer employment should prepare brief resumes and submit them to the Placement Office. A schedule is being prepared of firms which will conduct on-campus interviews. The Placement Office would like to forward resumes of students seeking interviews with visiting interviewers no later than November 1.

Seniors: all seniors who have not as yet visited Assistant Dean Vodicka, please do so immediately regardless of whether you already have a job. The Placement Director would like to meet you and find out about your plans for the future.

RECORD DISTRIBUTION

Students may pick up copies of the RECORD in selected classrooms on Thursday afternoon and evening. They will also be available in the office on Friday for those who did not receive copies in class.
